Humanities Policies and Expectations Checklist Fall 2018

Please review the following pages on our website with your parent or guardian. After all the documents are reviewed, this sheet should be returned to Ms. Vail with signature of both the student and a legal guardian. These forms must be returned to Ms. Vail by Wednesday, September 12.

- All sections of the Course Overview at <http://pioneerhumanities.weebly.com>
- The Humanities History Seminar Syllabus and Policies (see History tab on website)
- The Humanities Literature Seminar Syllabus (see Literature tab on website)
- The Art Policies (see link on Humanities website)
- The Music History Policies (see link on Humanities website) – password is “hydrate”
- Academic Ethics (see back of this sheet)

I have read each of these documents and understand the policies and expectations of the Humanities program.

Academic Integrity Pledge

I pledge to conduct myself according to the highest standard of academic integrity in the Pioneer Humanities Program, as outlined in the Humanities Policy on Academic Ethics. I promise to never plagiarize or cheat on any assignment or test. I understand that plagiarism is defined as passing off another person’s ideas or work as my own, be it another student’s, a published writer’s, or a web page’s. I promise to always cite my source if I refer to another’s work.
